

LOCAL NEWS.

TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 4.

For this section fair weather, followed by light snows, warmer, winds shifting to north-westerly and colder by Wednesday night.

PRIZE FIGHT.—Mike Reilly, of Washington, defeated Wm. Collins, of Wilmington, in a prize-fight for $250, on the shore of the Potomac, not far from Marshall Hall, Charles county, Md., yesterday afternoon. Wm. Reilly was Reilly's second. Tony Shannon acted in the same capacity for Collins. Geo. Northridge was referee. Collins was knocked senseless in the second round. As soon as the referee Northridge called time it was seen that Collins was afraid of his antagonist, but took his punishment bravely. Reilly began at once to clinch Collins, and before the first round was half over it was seen that Collins had no show. He was hustled around the ring, thrown up against the ropes, clinched and thrown to the ground. At the end of the first round he was beaten. On the return most of the men to avoid possible trouble, left the boat at 11 o'clock and went up to Washington on a late train. The fight will result in a match between Reilly and George Northridge.

COUNTY COURT.—Judge D. M. Chichester presiding.—Continuation of yesterday's proceedings.—Com. vs. Thomas Taylor, verdict of guilty of assault and battery, and fined $5 and costs.

Com. vs. Fred Butler alias Sam Jones, indicted for entering a hen house and stealing three chickens; jury and verdict of guilty and punishment fixed at one year in jail and a fine of $100. The prisoner was remanded to jail.

Com. vs. Wm. Marlow, indicted for unlawful assault; verdict of guilty and punishment fixed at 60 days in jail and a fine of $25.

An order was issued to allowing the sum of $250 for the repair of that portion of the old Leesburg turnpike in Alexandria county.

Com. vs. J. R. Bowen for an assault on Henry Drummond, jury and case in progress.

THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA FISHING LAW.—The five-years' law which was passed for the protection of fish in the waters of the Potomac within the District of Columbia expired at noon on Sunday, and the law has not yet been re-enacted. The object of the law was to protect the spawning grounds of the river with big seines and destroying the eggs of the fish. There is a bill now pending before Congress for the re-enactment of the law. Some of the people of the city and county are opposing the bill because it deprives them of the revenue to be obtained from half a dozen fishing shores and the committee will hear their claim one day this week. The fishermen say that while the law prevents five or six persons from renting shores it helps hundreds of fishermen in the lower Potomac and results in a more plentiful supply of fish.

PERSONAL.—At a meeting of the vestry of Trinity Church, Fredericksburg, yesterday, a call was extended to the Rev. Douglas Hood, of Detroit, Michigan, to be rector.

Mr. Peter Bartlett, of Baltimore, was in the city yesterday.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—Mr. Martin Hayden and his excellent company will appear here to-night in his successful drama "Held in Slavery." The St. Louis Spectator says: "Another young actor is added to the list of successful stars, Martin Hayden, who has won quite a reputation by playing boy's parts. He is quite good in this line of business, being graceful in movement and gesture and speaking his lines with finish and force."

To-morrow evening the minstrel entertainment for the benefit of the stage hands and ushers of the Opera House will come off. All the songs and jokes are entirely new and original.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with six lodgers and one prisoner at the station house.

The mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Wm. Lightfoot, colored, charged with an assault on Jas. Mudd, was dismissed, the charge not being sustained.

Anita Russell, Maggie Penn, Alice Manly and Little Russell, arrested by officers Davis and Taylor charged with vagrancy, were dismissed on the promise to leave the city.

THE G. A. R. WANTS THE BRIDGE.—The department of the Potomac, G. A. R., in Washington Saturday night passed the following resolution:

That the Arlington estate should be united directly with the National Capital by means of an intermediate bridge over the Potomac, so that the nation at large and the hundreds of thousands of visitors who go annually to the national cemetery may hereafter have easy and undisturbed access to the estate, and to the graves of the dead who sleep there. To that end we join in earnest prayer to Congress for such steps as will speedily secure such a structure.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.—The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp Confederate Veterans was held last night, Commander W. A. Smoot, presiding. Three new members were elected and five applications for membership were received. The camp decided to place a suitable headstone to the graves of the two southern soldiers who died in the Union hospitals of this city during the war, and whose remains were recently disinterred by Mrs. Kate U. Taylor and buried in her family lot in St. Paul's cemetery. Considerable business of a routine nature was transacted.

BIG SCHOONER WRECKED.—The large four-masted schooner Pocahontas, which was well-known on this river, was wrecked off the Connecticut coast recently. The remains of the schooner were recently sold at Stonington for $1,250. She cost over $50,000. She went ashore to pieces in a recent storm. Her stern was carried away, mizzen mast and spunkmast were broken off twenty feet above deck, and now the islanders are stripping off rigging and iron work in pleasant weather.

Sight Restored.

Mr. A. K. Hawkes: Dear Sir—About one year ago my sight began to fail, with the usual symptoms, viz: after reading for a short time my eyes became confused and there seemed to be a dimness before them, also accompanied with pain in the eye ball. Being satisfied that glasses were imperatively demanded, applied to you for them, and, I am happy to say, with wonderful results, for after having worn your crystalized lenses for a short time my eyes regained their accustomed strength, and I can now read the finest print for hours with perfect ease without glasses.
